

Music is My Comedy

In this life of music, it was magical, set in South- East London where I became a popstar comedian.

This day started with singing in the daylight of the stage light at the town centre.

The weekend flew by as fast as a Chimpanzee eating a banana treat.

I'm singing my life away like a star wishing upon the sky of this important day is the best day of my life.

I heard a knock at the front door I wonder who could it be? the door open. "Hello it's Me Tom I was in your pocket this whole time I cannot believe you didn't notice that was silly thing to do.

The last day of my music club it was fandabbydozy I became a ventriloquist, comedian, all around performer that can sing, act, dance, tell jokes and do impression of different voices isn't that right my best friend Tom the Sock Puppet. " Yes, yes, I cannot believe you said that but it's true we are brilliant let's celebrate see you next time to all our fans".

By Benjamin