

NUMBERS 1 to 10

Hello I'm Number 1 and enjoy lots of fun.
 I'm the one whose there when the race has begun.
 I'm always at the head of the queue.
 Especially if a bargain is there to peruse.
 I'm friends with number 2 and a part of its number crew.
 I'm leaser of the teens and therefore full of beans!

Hi! I'm Number 2, how do you do! I have lots of friends too!
 I'm an essential part of the crew. I have a twin and we form 22.
 I lead the 20s to 29 then I hand over to a friend of mine.
 I'm always happy to help you out, of that I certainly have no doubt.
 Come on 3 your turn to spout!

Good day! I am 3 and like number two I to am there for you too.
 I love poetry and I read each line.
 As the rhyme to me is so divine.
 Wordsworth is my favourite poet.
 My favourite verse "A host of golden daffodils" do you know it?
 I lead the 30s would you know it. That is why I am a poet!

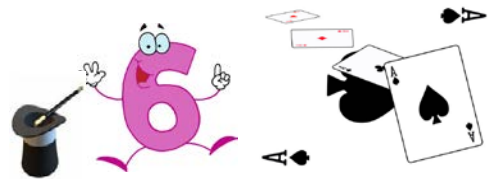

Bon Jour! I'm Number 4, I love to draw Monsieur!
 I love to be free and explore so I sketch what I see in front of me.
 And when I paint I feel happy and free and so full of glee.
 These images come so easily to me.
 I lead the 40s where they say life begins.
 Me and 1 love to pursue the bargains!

Yippee I'm Number 5 and it's so good to be alive.
 I'll do a dance usually a jive.
 I'm nimble on my feet and tap away I can dance all day.
 This way and that way I will always sway.
 I'm the leader to the 50s and we 50 are very nifty.

Abacadabra I'm Number 6 and I'm very good at magic tricks.
 Alakazam well I just do them for kicks.
 Hey Presto a pack of cards I will get mixed.
 Shazam and keep you all totally transfixed.
 Sim Sala Bim with my wand I'll mesmerise before your very eyes.
 Izzy Wizzy I hope it goes right or I'll be in a tizzy!

God Bless! I'm Number 7 and I love sitting my 7th Heaven!
 I've built up my garden from when it was shrub.
 Now sitting in my little garden next to my water tub.
 It gives my life production, function and reason.
 This garden I've grown is my passion every season.
 I form the 70s with 1 to 9 and we are all having a very good time!

I'm Number 8 always turning up late.
 Never on time, must it be fate!
 Always last in the queue and having to wait.
 I'm always getting in quite a state.
 Panic and fluster is my middle name, stress and tension is all part of the game!
 Although I lead the number 8s, I'd rather workout with my weights.

Howdy! I'm Number 9, Never in a hurry always on time.
 My time is precious so I'm always focused.
 Never walking in late and being embarrassed on any courses.
 I never panic like our number 8, never getting myself into a state.
 Always remembering the correct date.

Oh! I'm leader of the 9s and if the team aren't in at the sound of the bell my goodness I give them hell!

Willkommen! I'm 0 and I'm the last number in then?
 First of all coming with 1 to make 10
 I'm always flustered and stressed so practise Zen.
 I'm told it's better than any medicine then.
 Always in a relaxing dream state.
 So I'm not going to agitate.
 Usually seen from a hundred plus,
 I'll stick around though not making a fuss.

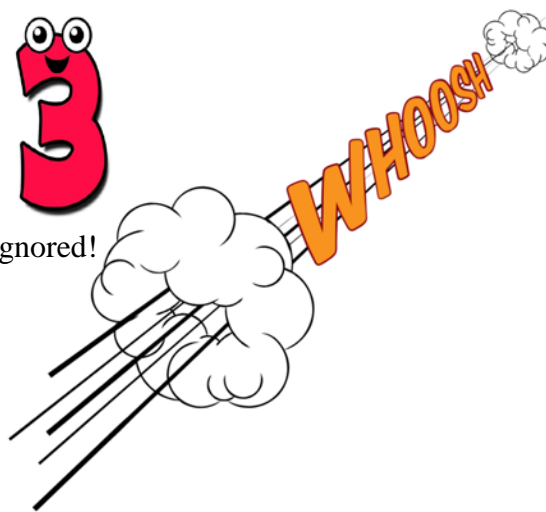

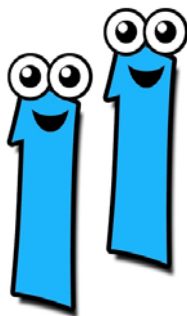

All numbers from 1 to 10, all needed then as of when.
 Joining together in an ability to count to infinity. we are a very useful utility.
 So next time you want to count, use us to any amount!

Multiply, add, subtract, divide, fractions and all...!
 On us you can certainly call!

Hello! We are eleven and always ignored!

Hope you enjoyed the number poem!
 You can now ladies and gentlemen applaud!
